Order on Notice to Show Cause

Respondent, Gina D. Balog, holds Florida educator's certificate no. 829833. Previously the Commission entered a Final Order in this case on August 10, 2011.

On November 14, 2011, the probation office filed an Affidavit suggesting Respondent was in violation of paragraphs 6(e) and 6(f) of the Final Order.

On December 6, 2011, an Order to Show Cause was issued by the Clerk of the Commission, notifying Respondent that a hearing was to be held on January 27, 2012, in Jacksonville, Florida before a Teacher panel of the Education Practices Commission to address why further penalties should not be imposed for violating the prior order. A copy of the previous Final Order and the Notice of Violation are attached to and incorporated by reference.

On January 27, 2012, Respondent was present.

The Commission concludes that Respondent is in violation of this Commission's prior Order. Therefore, it is Ordered that the conditions of the Final Order are re-imposed with the following additional conditions:

1. Respondent's Florida educator's certificate is hereby suspended for 2 years from the date of this order.

2. Upon employment in any public or private position requiring a Florida educator's certificate, Respondent shall be placed on 2 employment years of probation with the conditions that during that period, she shall:

A. Immediately notify the investigative office in the Department of Education upon employment or termination of employment in the state in any public or private position requiring a Florida educator's certificate.

B. Have Respondent's immediate supervisor submit annual performance reports to the investigative office in the Department of Education.

C. Pay to the Commission during the first 6 months of each probation year the administrative costs ($150) of monitoring probation assessed to the educator.

D. Violate no law and shall fully comply with all district school board policies, school rules, and State Board of Education rules.

E. Satisfactorily perform all assigned duties in a competent, professional manner.

F. Bear all costs of complying with the terms of a final order entered by the Commission.

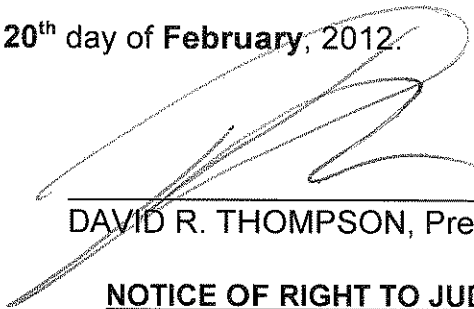

G. Engage in substance abuse counseling with an RNP approved licensed Florida provider until discharged from treatment. If, to fulfill this requirement, Respondent must now engage in such counseling, Respondent must have the professional submit quarterly reports to the EPC.

H. Refrain from transporting minor students in or on motor vehicles.

I. Respondent is assessed an administrative fine of $500.00 to be paid within the first year of probation.

This Order becomes effective upon filing.

Re: Dr. Eric J. Smith vs. Gina Balog
EPC No.: 11-0197-RT; DOE No.: 829833

Dear Ms. Balog:

As you know, the teacher panel of the Education Practices Commission reviewed the matter pending against you. Based upon the panel's consideration of this matter and upon the panel's acceptance of your Settlement Agreement, you are hereby reprimanded.

This panel, composed of your peers, believes that, as a teacher, you are required to exercise a measure of leadership beyond reproach. By your actions, you have lessened the reputation of all who practice our profession. The profession cannot condone your actions, nor can the public who employ us.

The Education Practices Commission sincerely hopes it is your intention to never allow this situation to occur again or indeed, to violate any professional obligation in fulfilling your responsibilities as an educator. To violate the standards of the profession will surely result in further action being taken against you.

This letter of reprimand is being placed in your state certification file, and a copy is being sent to the Brevard County School Board for placement in your personnel file.

Sincerely,
