EXPLANATION OF ELECTION OF RIGHTS

The enclosed Administrative Complaint outlines charges brought against you by the Florida Commissioner of Education. To respond to the charges you must indicate your choice of response on the enclosed Election of Rights form and return it within 20 days of the date of receipt.

1. Formal Hearing before the Division of Administrative Hearings. The Administrative Procedures Act, Section 120.57(1), Florida Statutes, and Section 1012.796, Florida Statutes, govern the formal hearing process. This choice means you deny some or all of the factual allegations in the Administrative Complaint. There will be a full administrative hearing on the issues. The Commissioner will be represented by an attorney and will bring forth witnesses. You may choose to have an attorney or represent yourself in the proceedings. (See www.doah.state.fl.us for more information.)
2. Informal Hearing before the Education Practices Commission. The Florida Administrative Procedures Act, Section 120.57(2), Florida Statutes, governs the informal hearing process. This option means you choose not to dispute the factual allegations or charges of the Administrative Complaint. You have the right to appear before a panel of the Education Practices Commission to state why a lenient penalty or no penalty is appropriate. If you do not want to make a personal appearance, you or your representative, may submit written statements on your behalf. Any written statement must be submitted to the Education Practices Commission staff no later than 30 days before the scheduled informal hearing.
3. Voluntary Surrender of your Florida Educator's Certificate. This choice means you do not contest any of the allegations or charges in the Administrative Complaint and voluntarily surrender your certificate for permanent revocation. Once surrendered, the certificate will never be reinstated and the rules of the Department of Education do not permit you to apply for a new certificate. Your right to any Florida Educator's Certificate is forever revoked and relinquished.
4. Settlement Agreement with the Department of Education. This choice means you neither admit nor deny the allegations in the Administrative Complaint, but wish to negotiate a settlement. In a settlement agreement, you will accept certain conditions in order to resolve the case. If you do not reach a settlement, you have the choice to reschedule the case to a formal or informal hearing. (If negotiations fail and you do not select a box indicating a formal or informal hearing (see form), you will automatically be scheduled for an informal hearing.)

Regardless of which selection you make, the Education Practices Commission (Sections 1012.79 and 1012.795, Florida Statutes) must issue a Final Order to finalize the process. For more information on this process, please visit our webpage at www.myfloridateacher.com

Your election of rights form must be fully executed, notarized and returned to:
